INFORMATION FOR GOVERNMENT MONITORING PURPOSES

The following information is requested by the federal government for certain types of loans related to a dwelling in order to monitor the lender's compliance with equal credit opportunity, fair housing, and mortgage disclosure laws. You are not required to furnish this information, but are encouraged to do so. You may select one or more designations for "Race". The law provides that a lender may not discriminate on the basis of this information or on whether you choose to furnish it. However, if you choose not to furnish the information and you have made this application in person, under federal regulations the lender is required to note ethnicity, race, and sex on the basis of visual observation or surname. If you do not wish to furnish the information, please check below.

STATE NOTICES

CALIFORNIA: A married couple may apply for a separate account. If your credit is declined, you refuse or counter offer, your account is terminated or there is an unfavorable change in the terms made to your account and our decision is based, in whole or in part, on information contained in a consumer credit report, you have the right to obtain a copy of your consumer credit report from the credit reporting agency within 60 days. You also have the right to obtain a copy of your consumer credit report from any other credit reporting agency which complies and maintains files on a nationwide basis. Additionally, you have the right to dispute the accuracy or completeness of any information in a consumer credit reporting agency.

NEW YORK: In connection with your application for credit, a consumer credit report may be obtained which contains information on your credit worthiness, credit standing, credit capacity and general reputation. If you request, you will be informed whether a consumer report was obtained, and if so, you will be given the name and address of the consumer reporting agency which furnished the report. If your application is granted subsequent consumer reports may be obtained in connection with any updates, extension or renewal of credit.

OHIO: The Ohio law against discrimination requires that all creditors make credit equally available to all credit worthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with the law (Section 4112.021)

WISCONSIN: No provision of any marital property agreement, unilateral statement under S.766.59 Wis. Stats., or court decree under S.766.70 adversely affects the interest of the creditor unless the creditor, prior to the time the credit is granted or an open end credit plan is entered into, is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement or decree or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision.
